OBITUARY

Samuel H. Judy.

Samuel H. Judy, son of William and Delilah Judy and the oldest of a family of eight, was born at Mt. Sterling, Ky., on the 9th of August, 1841. Mr. Judy married Miss Clay Hathaway November 5, 1868. This union was blessed with six children of whom Samuel H. and Mamie preceded their father in death, leaving Katie H., Blanche, Mattie Lee and Fant—all left with their dear, good mother to mourn their loss in the death of a good husband and father. Mr. Judy leaves also, one brother, Andrew Judy of Mt. Sterling, Ky., and two sisters, Mrs. Elizabeth Huffman of Kansas City, Mo., and Mrs. Lee VanArsdale of Sulphur, Okla. When a young man he united with the Christian Church at Old Somerset, Ky. and remained a faithful member there until he removed to Indiana in 1883. In a short time after his arrival he transferred his membership to the Somerset church near his home where he remained a faithful member until death, which came at noon, October 10, 1908. Brother Judy was one of the well-known and respected citizens of this county. His character was established on the principles of sobriety, integrity, industry and gentleness. He kept good faith with his family, his church and his country, and was most highly esteemed by his neighbors. He served this county as commissioner for six years and was also directly connected with the building committee of the court house, having part in planning and carrying out plans which have resulted in one of the best court houses of the state and one that is the pride of every good citizen of this county. Mr. Judy made no claims to any special gifts of any kind, but his disposition to be kind, good and honest in every service of life made him highly respected by everyone. The death of this father, citizen and christian is lamentable but the large circle of mourners are left with a steadfast hope that all is well. The funeral services were conducted at Brick Chapel by Rev. W. H. Brown and interment made in the cemetery there on the 12th of October, 1908.

La VOGUE

"The Standard of Style"

Individuality is the keynote of La Vogue styles. La Vogue garments are not mere imitation of foreign models—but the original product of high-class American designers and tailors—who adopt the latest suggestion of European style-thought, and incorporate them in their American interpretations of La Vogue fashions.

La Vogue Coats and Suits are cut and fashioned by custom tailors—hence their perfection of fit and finish. Every detail of their making is supervised by skilled experts. The utmost care and good judgment is exercised in the selection of findings and trimmings, in the combining of colors, the placing of buttons, etc—resulting in their unrivaled style.

We are proud of our showing of La Vogue garments and invite inspection of our full line. A few of the most striking values are shown here.

PUTNAM MAN IS KILLED FACES A SERIOUS CHARGE

FRANK BARNETT, WHO LIVES NEAR REELSVILLE, MEETS DEATH WHILE WALKING TO DELMAR FRIDAY AFTERNOON—HIT BY A PASSENGER TRAIN AND DEATH PROBABLY WAS INSTANTANEOUS.

WAS GOING TO BUY TIMBER

Victim Had Been Here in Greencastle To Attend Rally and Pay Taxes—Tax Receipt was Means of Identification—Head Crushed and Arms and Legs Broken.

Frank Barnett, aged 40 years, was killed Friday afternoon between this town and Delmar by Big Four passenger train No. 16. The train which is due here at 1:30 o'clock was running about two hours late. The train stopped and took the body to Delmar and Coroner Ed Lynch was notified and went after the body.

A tax receipt given by county treasurer Walls yesterday, which the victim carried in his pocket was the means of the identification of the body.

Mr. Barnett, who deals in timber, had come to Greencastle yesterday to attend the Democratic Rally and pay his taxes. Yesterday afternoon he started to walk to Delmar to buy some timber. As he was walking along the tracks he was struck and killed. The tracks are double between here and Delmar and it is believed that Mr. Barnett, at the approach of the train, became confused and stepped upon the wrong track and was struck.

The victim leaves a widow and seven children. Two daughters are married and five lived with their parents. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Barnett also live at Reelsville.

The body was taken from the Lynch Undertaking rooms to Reelsville this afternoon. The funeral will be Sunday. Interment will be in the Wesley chapel cemetery.

HAWKINS-CRAWLEY WEDDING

A quiet wedding, which came as a surprise to their friends occurred last night at the home of Dr. and Mrs. E. Hawkins when their only daughter, Gertrude, was united in marriage to Mr. Clarence E. Crawley, the popular bookkeeper at the Greencastle Lightning-rod factory. Rev. J. S. Hoagland was the officiating minister. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Crawley went to their home on the corner of Poplar and Water Streets where they are now at home to their friends.

LUTE EVANS, TOWNSHIP TRUSTEE OF WARREN TOWNSHIP, SITS UPON ELECTION BOARD, WHEN CHARGES THAT HE MADE WAGERS ON THE RESULT OF THE ELECTION ARE MADE AGAINST HIM.

TRUSTEE TO BE PROSECUTED

Money is in Hands of Joe Kleinbub, Who Cashed Check Given Him by Mr. Evans—Outtowsheip Man Says The Money Was Not His and That He Was Acting for Another—Election Law Plain.

Lute Evans, trustee of Warren Township, and election inspector today, faces a serious criminal prosecution. Mr. Evans was charged yesterday with having made a wager on the result of the election. The law provides that it is a criminal offence for any man having a bet on the result of an election to act as a member of an election board.

It is alleged that Mr. Evans bet $50 to $10 that Taft would be elected. He made the bet, it is said, with a man by the name of Johnson in the Gardner saloon. Mr. Evans wrote out his personal check for the amount and placed it in the hands of Joe Kleinbub, barber, as stake holder.

When taken before the Board of County Commissioners yesterday and charged with having a bet on the election, Mr. Evans made an affidavit to the effect that he had made no wager on the election. He claims that he bet for another man.

He was told that he could either resign from the board or be prosecuted if he stayed on. He refused to get off of the board and probably will be prosecuted to the full extent of the law for his action.

Mr. Evans is a Republican and trustee of Warren Township.
